

Lesson 19

S at the end of words

Phonics Rule: S at the end of words changes the meaning. At the end of a noun, it can mean more than one.

cat	cats	rock	rocks
dog	dogs	duck	ducks
jet	jets	deck	decks
lid	lids	sack	sacks
bug	bugs	stick	sticks
game	games	bike	bikes
jeep	jeeps	robe	robes
mule	mules	maid	maids

bake	bakes	wait	waits
read	reads	feed	feeds
hide	hides	bite	bites
vote	votes	rock	rocks
glue	glues	cut	cuts

Sue waits in line to vote. She votes for the man.

The dog bites his bones. He digs deep holes.

Jill likes to bake cakes. Bob cuts it and eats it.

The suffix "s" has a Z sound at the end of some words.
