Bud's Pup

Bud had a pup. It was a mutt. A big red bug bit the pup. “Yip, Yip!” went the pup.

The pup runs to the mud and dug in the mud. The pup got mud on the steps and on the rug. The bad pup will jump up on the bed and on Bud. Bud has a mess! Dad must help Bud. Dad got a tub and a rag. Bud had suds in the tub. The pup had fun in the tub. Dad will fuss with the pup. Bud will scrub the pup and hum a song. The pup has less mess. Bud will tug the pup into the sun. Bud will hug the pup and run in the sun and have fun!

COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS:

1. How did the pup get dirty?
2. Who helped Bud give the pup a bath?
3. How did they help the pup to dry off?

PROJECT: Romans 3:23 says, “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.”

Little animals and little children often do not realize what a mess they are making. When your pet or little brother, sister, or friend makes a mess, try not to get angry or upset or yell at him or her. Try to be gentle and lovingly help to clean up the mess. We all need to be treated kindly when we make mistakes.
